

Bell UH-1H Huey Helicopter

The Bell UH-1H Huey helicopter was originally built for the U.S. Army and is mainly known for serving during the Vietnam War. The Huey later entered into other governmental agencies around the world. It also serves in the civil market as a Med Evac.

Mockup Specs

Seating: 2 pilots and up to 8 military-type seating. Med Evac conversion seating up to 4.

Paint Scheme:

Ext: Red and Yellow with white strip.

Int: Cockpit and cabin area is black with shades of light and darker gray.

Instrument Panel: The gauges are analog and fixed. Optional for functional gauges.

Mockup shown on base and has casters.

Cockpit compartment shown (Pilot side).

Mockup Dimensions

Dimensions (without tail):	L: 252"
	W: 106"
	H: 116.5"
Dimensions (with tail):	L: 505"
	W: 106"
	H: 136"
Weight:	4,800 lbs.

Tail Boom and Rotor Blade Assemblies available.

More images available upon request.